

About University and College

The Tilka Manjhi Bhagalpur University, also known as Bhagalpur University, is a premier institution for providing higher education in the state of Bihar. The university is situated in Bhagalpur town of Bihar State in India and is named after famous freedom fighter Tilka Manjhi. Established on 12 July 1960, it is a public university sprawled within 264 acres of lush green campus ideal for teaching and learning. T.N.B. College, Bhagalpur is a premiere institution of higher learning in the state of Bihar which was established in 1983. Situated in the historic city of Bhagalpur (known famously as the Anga Desh of the Magadhan era and the land of the renowned Vikramshila University), the college has a rich past and storied tradition. The college runs traditional faculties of Humanities, Science and Arts (even up to Postgraduate level in some select disciplines) along with the vocational courses like B.C.A. and B.Sc. (Biotech). A team of well qualified faculty members with academic background from the premier institutions of our country such as Delhi University, BHU, IIT Kanpur, Jadhavpur University, AMU etc. ensure that the students get the best resources at their disposal.
